

WHERE'S PETER
PIPER? Here's Senator
Pepper, of Pennsylvania (left) with Henry J.
Heinz, Pittsburgh's famous "pickie man," snapped outside the White House just after the former had introduced the latter to President Harding. Underwood

DOUG AND MARY get-away with another good publicity stunt—this time the most famous wedded pair of the silver screen cast themselves as tele-graph operators and offi-cially opens all the branches of the Santa Claus Association in the United States and Can-ada for the holiday sea-son. The association takes care of all mail ad-dressed to Santa Claus that was formerly de-stroyed by the Dead Letter Office. Underwood weeks ago yes-Centre's noted ttack failed to fficient ground, o prevent Ala-winning, 6 to 0.

INSURANCE

monster packs ers ready to be manned v gets New

nama-a on that is HEEARNS HIS WAGE. A diver employed by the Bell Telephone Company about to descend in his sharkproof(?) cage to the bottom of Havana Harbor to pick up the severed ends of one of the trio of telephone cables which connect this country conversationally with Cuba.
Few divers are willing to do this hazardous work, and shose that are demand high pay.

Right — THE FALLEN GERMAN EAGLE and the Sword of Justice dis-tinguish this striking memorial to the heroic diers of France, which was unveiled by President Millerand on November 11 on the spot where, four years ago, the Armistice terms were drawn up. Radel 4 Herbert diers of France, which

Left-MOST COLORFUL OF CYCLE GRINDERS. Maurice Brocco, the French-Italian cyclist, the French-Italian cyclist, the most picturesque of those to take part in New York's annual six-day bicycle race, pictured as he arrives on the Mauretania, smilingly confident he'll come through a winner in the back-breaking grind now on at Madison Square Garden. Wide World

BELGIUM HONORS
HER UNKNOWN. Belgium's Unknown Soldier, selected by a blind veteran from five unidentified war dead, is lowered into its final resting place beneath the Colonne du Congres, in Brussels, on Armistice Day, by ten disabled war veterans, five of whom had lost their right arms and five of whom had lost their left. At the left, standing at salute, are King Albert and Crown Prince Leopold. Queen Elizabeth, Princess Charlotte, Cardinal Mercier, the foreign nal Mercier, the foreign ambassadors and other notables attended the cere-Kadel & Herbert

GENE TAKES A CHANCE—and so does his caddy. Sarazen, America's national open golf champ, pictured making a dangerous drive on the links of the Miami Beach Golf Club, Florida.
Can't you just hear the dusky William Tell moaning, "Fo' the Lawd's sake, Master Gene, doan you all dare dubb dis here drive
—keep yo' eye on de ball."
Nessa Kyeats

Left - CLEVELAND Left — CLEVELAND GETS AN EYEFUL as ten comely maids, appealingly arrayed in quite the latest sports attire, indulge in a spirited pogo race in front of the American Legion headquarters, on Euclid Avenue.

Underwood

